Meliá Bali is one of those Nusa Dua resorts that seamlessly blends local traditional aesthetics with international standards that the brand represents. A true representation to this is YHI Spa, named after the goddess of light who brought life into the universe. The spa is situated within the resort's complex among the charming spa garden, comprising different types of private treatment chambers. Among them are the scenic outside private pavilions, which will take guests into another level of serenity as the sounds of nearby waves lap the shore. Treatments include the Balinese massage, body scrub and wrap, and more. YHI Spa aims to figuratively bring life back by rejuvenating your body, mind and spirit.
